About this Prayer Cycle

Please pray daily for our Franciscan sisters and brothers. This booklet contains the the prayer cycle for Regions within the Province of Asia-Pacific and the Third Order worldwide prayer cycle.

The Community Obedience and readings from the Rule are also included, so that this may be used alone without needing the Manual.

The cycle of prayer around our Province moves clockwise from PNG around Australia through to Sri Lanka, India, Singapore, Malaysia, Hong Kong and South Korea. This prayer cycle is distributed to other Provinces and to our First and Second Order members who pray for us.

The Community Obedience and Provincial Prayer Cycle can be accessed online on your computer or smartphone. This may be accessed at this address:

<https://tssf.org.au/communityobedience/>

Personal contact details, contained in the Address List, are for private circulation within the Third Order only, and must not be distributed beyond members in the Province.

Legend

N: Noviced date;

P: Profession date;

EP: Elected for Profession (with Noviced date)

 indicates Tertiaries who may be able to offer short-term hospitality, if mutually convenient.

In case of severe illness or death

The owner of this booklet belongs to a Religious Community called the Third Order, Society of St Francis.

If this Community member is severely ill or has died, please notify an Anglican Priest and also advise the TSSF Provincial Secretary at

Email provincial.secretary@tssf.org.au

The member's profession cross may be buried or cremated with them.

Otherwise please return the cross and this booklet to:

The Community Obedience

This offering of prayer is to be said daily, where possible, in the context of Morning or Evening Prayer.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Here and in all your churches throughout the world, we adore you, O Christ, and we bless you, because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Amen.

Reading from the Principles of the Third Order.

Intercessions - The Third Order Prayer list.

The Third Order Community Collect

God, we give you thanks for the Third Order of the Society of Saint Francis. Grant, we pray, that being knit together in community and prayer, we your servants may glorify your holy name after the example of Saint Francis, and win others to your love; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

The Collect for the Day

Either

May our blessed Lady pray for us.

May Saint Francis pray for us.

May Saint Clare pray for us.

May all the saints of the Third Order pray for us.

May the holy angels watch over us and befriend us.

May the Lord Jesus give us his blessing and his peace.

Amen.

Or

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us all evermore.

Amen.

Collects

Sunday

God, your love led Francis and Clare to establish our three Orders: draw us into your love that we may grow in love towards all with whom we have to do, for the sake of your son, Jesus Christ, who gives himself in love to all. Amen.

Monday

God, you are always pleased to show yourself to those who are childlike and humble in spirit: help us to follow the example of our blessed father Francis, to look upon the wisdom of this world as foolishness, and to set our minds only on Christ Jesus and him crucified; to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be all glory for ever. Amen.

Tuesday

God, you resist the proud and give grace to the humble: help us not to think proudly, but to serve you with the humility that pleases you, so we may walk in the steps of your servant Francis and receive the gift of your grace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Wednesday

God, you have made your church rich through the poverty of blessed Francis: help us, like him, not to trust in earthly things, but to seek your heavenly gifts; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Thursday

Lord, without you our labour is wasted, but with you all who are weak can find strength. Pour your Spirit on the Society of Saint Francis; give your labourers a pure intention, patient faith, sufficient success on earth, and the joy of serving you in heaven; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Friday

Lord Jesus, in your servant Francis you displayed the wonderful power of the cross: help us always to follow you in the way of the cross, and give us strength to resist all temptation, and to you, Lord, with the Father and the Holy Spirit be all glory for ever. Amen.

Saturday

God, by the life of blessed Francis you moved your people to a love of simple things: may we, after his example, hold lightly to the things of this world and store up for ourselves treasure in heaven; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

NB. To align better with the SSF Prayer Book, the Saturday and Thursday Collects have been switched; the SSF Prayer Book, however, uses slightly different wording.

Peace Prayer of Saint Francis*

Lord, make us channels of your peace.

*Where there is hatred, let us sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is discord, union;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.*

*O divine Master, grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.*

* First published in French in La Clochette, n12, Dec 1912, p285, the author is unknown, but when later published in English was attributed to St. Francis.

Day 1 - The Object

Jesus said, 'Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honour.' John 12:24-26

Day 2 - The Object (continued)

In the example of his own sacrifice, Jesus reveals the secret of bearing fruit. In surrendering himself to death, he becomes the source of new life. Lifted from the earth on the cross, he draws all people to himself. Clinging to life causes life to decay; the life that is freely given is eternal.

Jesus calls those who would serve him to follow his example and choose for themselves the same path of renunciation and sacrifice. To those who hear and obey, he promises union with God. The object of the Society of Saint Francis is to build a community of those who accept Christ as their Lord and Master, and are dedicated to him in body and spirit. They surrender their lives to him and to the service of his people. The Third Order of the Society consists of those who, while following the ordinary professions of life, feel called to dedicate their lives under a definite discipline and vows. They may be female or male, married or single, ordained or lay.

In the Province of the Pacific, pray for Tertiaries in the Solomon Island of Makira and Republic of Vanuatu.

When Saint Francis encouraged the formation of The Third Order he recognised that many are called to serve God in the spirit of Poverty, Chastity and Obedience in everyday life (rather than in a literal acceptance of these principles as in the vows of the Brothers and Sisters of the First and Second Orders). The Rule of The Third Order is intended to enable the duties and conditions of daily living to be carried out in this spirit.

Day 5 - The First Aim of the Order

To make our Lord known and loved everywhere.

The Order is founded on the conviction that Jesus Christ is the perfect revelation of God; that true life has been made available to us through his Incarnation and Ministry; by his Cross and Resurrection; and by the sending of his Holy Spirit. Our Order believes that it is the commission of the church to make the gospel known to all, and therefore accepts the duty of bringing others to know Christ, and of praying and working for the coming of the Kingdom of God.

The primary aim for us as Tertiaries is therefore to make Christ known. This shapes our lives and attitudes to reflect the obedience of those whom our Lord chose to be with him and sent out as his witnesses. Like them, by word and example, we bear witness to Christ in our own immediate environment and pray and work for the fulfilment of his command to make disciples of all nations.

Day 7 - The Second Aim

To spread the spirit of love and harmony.

The Order sets out, in the name of Christ, to break down barriers between people and to seek equality for all. We accept as our second aim the spreading of a spirit of love and harmony among all people. We are pledged to fight against the ignorance, pride, and prejudice that breed injustice or partiality of any kind.

Day 8 - The Second Aim (continued)

Members of The Third Order fight against all injustice in the name of Christ, in whom there can be neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, male nor female; for in him all are one. Our chief object is to reflect that openness to all which was characteristic of Jesus. This can only be achieved in a spirit of chastity, which sees others as belonging to God and not as a means of self-fulfilment.

February: Anglican Franciscan Pioneers (Manual F3)

Day 10 - The Third Aim

To live simply.

The first Christians surrendered completely to our Lord and recklessly gave all that they had, offering the world a new vision of a society in which a fresh attitude was taken towards material possessions. This vision was renewed by Saint Francis when he chose Lady Poverty as his bride, desiring that all barriers set up by privilege based on wealth should be overcome by love. This is the inspiration for the third aim of the Society, to live simply.

Day 11 - The Third Aim (continued)

Although we possess property and earn money to support ourselves and our families, we show ourselves to be true followers of Christ and of Saint Francis by our readiness to live simply and to share with others. We recognize that some of our members may be called to a literal following of Saint Francis in a life of extreme simplicity. All of us, however, accept that we avoid luxury and waste, and regard our possessions as being held in trust for God.

Day 12 - The Third Aim (continued)

Personal spending is limited to what is necessary for our health and well-being and that of our dependents. We aim to stay free from all attachment to wealth, keeping ourselves constantly aware of the poverty in the world and its claim on us. We are concerned more for the generosity that gives all, rather than for the value of poverty in itself. In this way we reflect in spirit the acceptance of Jesus' challenge to sell all, give to the poor, and follow him.

Day 13 - The Three Ways of Service

Tertiaries desire to be conformed to the image of Jesus Christ, whom we serve in the three ways of Prayer, Study, and Work. In the life of the Order as a whole these three ways must each find full and balanced expression, but it is not to be expected that all members devote themselves equally to each of them. Each individual's service varies according to his or her abilities and circumstances, yet each individual member's personal rule of life must include each of the three ways.

Day 14 - The First Way of Service

Prayer

Tertiaries seek to live in an atmosphere of praise and prayer. We aim to be constantly aware of God's presence, so that we may indeed pray without ceasing. Our ever-deepening devotion to the indwelling Christ is a source of strength and joy. It is Christ's love that inspires us to service, and strengthens us for sacrifice.

Day 16 - The First Way of Service (continued)

Tertiaries recognize the power of intercessory prayer for furthering the purposes of God's kingdom, and therefore seek a deepening fellowship with God in personal devotion, and constantly intercede for the needs of his church and his world. Those of us who have much time at our disposal give prayer a large part in our daily lives. Those of us with less time must not fail to see the importance of prayer and to guard the time we have allotted to it from interruption. Lastly, we are encouraged to avail ourselves of the sacrament of Reconciliation, through which the burden of past sin and failure is lifted and peace and hope restored.

Study

“And this is eternal life: to know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent.”

John 17:3

True knowledge is knowledge of God. Tertiaries therefore give priority to devotional study of scripture as one of the chief means of attaining that knowledge of God which leads to eternal life.

As well as the devotional study of Scripture, we all recognize our Christian responsibility to pursue other branches of study, both sacred and secular. In particular, some of us accept the duty of contributing, through research and writing, to a better understanding of the church's mission in the world: the application of Christian principles to the use and distribution of wealth; questions concerning justice and peace; and of all other questions concerning the life of faith.

The faults that we see in others are the subject of prayer rather than of criticism. We take care to cast out the beam from our own eye before offering to remove the speck from another's. We are ready to accept the lowest place when asked, and to volunteer to take it. Nevertheless, when asked to undertake work of which we feel unworthy or incapable, we do not shrink from it on the grounds of humility, but confidently attempt it through the power that is made perfect in weakness.

In the European Province, pray for Tertiaries in South West England, Wales, Severn, West Midlands and The Marches.

Day 25 - The Second Note

Love

Jesus said, 'I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.' (John 13:34-35) Love is the distinguishing feature of all true disciples of Christ who wish to dedicate themselves to him as his servants.

Therefore, we seek to love all those to whom we are bound by ties of family or friendship. Our love for them increases, as our love for Christ grows deeper. We have a special love and affection for members of the Third Order, praying for each other individually and seeking to grow in that love. We are on our guard against anything that might injure this love, and we seek reconciliation with those from whom we are estranged. We seek the same love for those with whom we have little natural affinity, for this kind of love is not a welling-up of emotion, but is a bond founded in our common union with Christ.

In the Province of the Americas, Region of South America, pray for the Tertiaries in South America: Brazil, Colombia, Ecuador, Peru, Paraguay and Argentina.

The Third Order is a Christian community whose members, though varied in race, education and character, are bound into a living whole through the love we share in Christ. This unity of all who believe in him will become, as our Lord intended, a witness to the world of his divine mission. In our relationships with those outside the Order, we show the same Christ-like love, and gladly give of ourselves, remembering that love is measured by sacrifice.

Day 28 - The Third Note

Joy

Tertiaries, rejoicing in the Lord always, show in our lives the grace and beauty of divine joy. We remember that we follow the Son of Man, who came eating and drinking, who loved the birds and the flowers, who blessed little children, who was a friend to tax collectors and sinners and who sat at the tables of both the rich and the poor. We delight in fun and laughter, rejoicing in God's world, its beauty and its living creatures, calling nothing common or unclean. We mix freely with all people, ready to bind up the broken-hearted and to bring joy into the lives of others. We carry within us an inner peace and happiness, which others may perceive, even if they do not know its source.

In the Province of the Americas, pray for all Tertiaries in Canada and Mexico.

Day 29 - The Third Note (continued)

This joy is a divine gift, coming from union with God in Christ. It is still there even in times of darkness and difficulty, giving cheerful courage in the face of disappointment, and an inward serenity and confidence through sickness and suffering. Those who possess it can rejoice in weakness, insults, hardships, and persecutions for Christ's sake; for when we are weak, then we are strong.

Day 30 - The Three Notes

The humility, love and joy, which mark the lives of Tertiaries, are all God-given graces. They can never be obtained by human effort. They are gifts of the Holy Spirit. The purpose of Christ is to work miracles through people who are willing to be emptied of self and to surrender to him. We then become channels of grace through whom his mighty work is done.

Pray for the Society of St Francis: Ministers General of First Orders, Abbess of Second Order and Ministers Provincial of First Orders.

Pray for those in churches who while not under formal vows try to follow Jesus in the company of Francis and Clare.

Day 31

The Principles of the Third Order, a portion of which is set for reflection each day, are based on the Rule of the Christa Seva Sangha from Poona in India. This community, formed in 1922, was inspired both by the Gospel of Christ and the way of life in an Indian Ashram. This community of married and single people, ordained and lay, led by Fr Jack Winslow, lived a common life as equals.

In 1928 the Rule was revised under the guidance of Fr Algy Robertson and some aspects of that Rule can also be found in The Third Order Principles.

We give thanks to God for the Principles of the Third Order that inspire us in the Franciscan way of following Jesus.

Reflect on which portion has particularly encouraged or challenged you in this past month.

Pray for Ministers of the Third Order:

MINISTER GENERAL	Michael Twum-Darko
ASSISTANT MINISTER GENERAL	Mandy Wheatley

PROVINCIAL MINISTERS:

American Province	Charles McCarron
African Province	Bonginkosi Thomas Buthelezi
Asia-Pacific Province	Mandy Wheatley
